Oral book reports are a part of the senior English course. Clarence Hill, Margaret Reid, Roger Eason, and Cynthia Williamson are questioned by Chairman Marc Wallace.

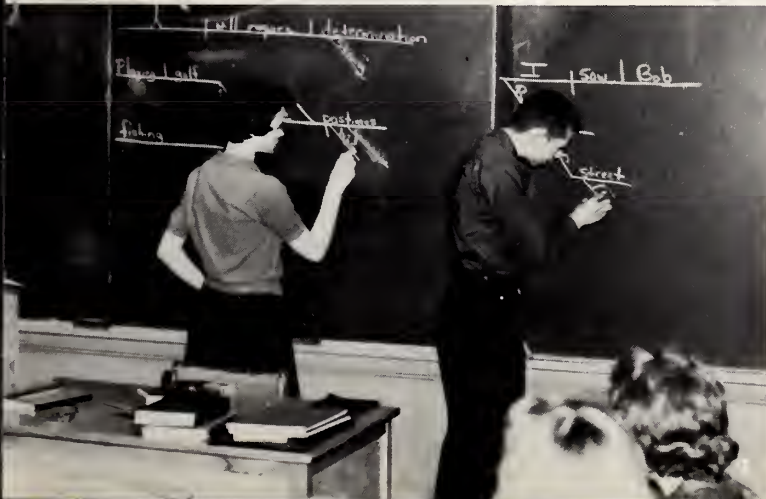

English, the basis of our education, covers a wide range of subjects. Sophomores study Shakespeare's Julius Caesar while the juniors trace American literature from the historical writings of Benjamin Franklin to the contemporary poems of Carl Sandburg. Seniors read such important works as Beowulf, Chaucer's Canterbury Tales, and Macbeth. Grammar is also emphasized in all four years. Included in the English curriculum is an elective course in speech.

English . . . Basis of all knowledge

Our speech may be improved by listening with a critical ear. Linda Woodall uses records for this purpose in speech class. Speech helps to give students poise and self-confidence.

Freshmen get a good foundation for grammar by diagramming sentences under Mr. Temple. Seems as though Lindsey Park has the long one while Shady Pridgen takes the easy one.

Theorems, slide rules, axioms—these are the by-words of the math students. Realizing the importance of mathematics, students apply themselves to serious investigation in advanced courses. From a basic knowledge of Algebra I, they progress to Algebra II, General Math, Plane Geometry, and Solid Geometry.

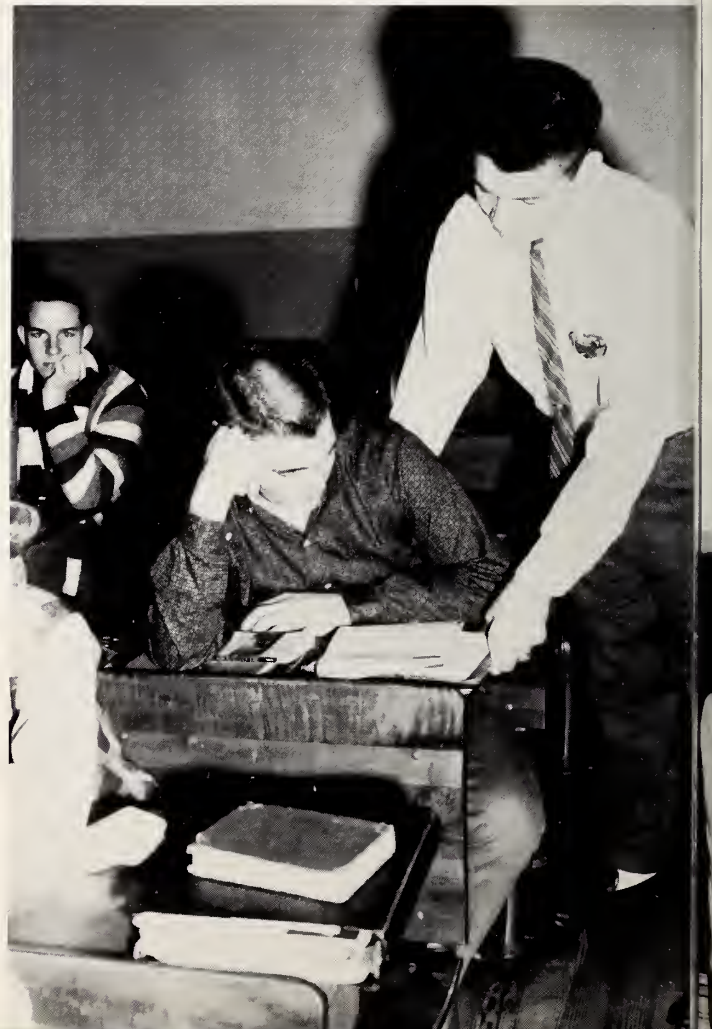

Airplanes? No! Margaret Lee Austin, Penny Adams, Marc Wallace, and Ben Baker examine solid figures—a new addition to Solid Geometry.

Mathematics . . . A basic tool

Mrs. Lassiter stresses everyday practical math in General Math class.

It is Plane Geometry that puzzles Dan Barefoot. Tom Carrington, student teacher from State College, instructs here.

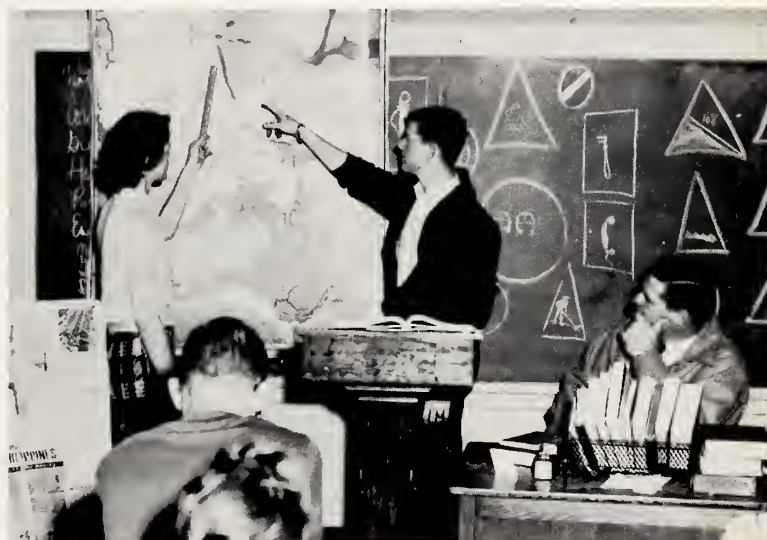

Mrs. Avery flips the switch! It is as simple as that—TV history for seniors.

How can we fully understand the present unless we know the past? United States, Latin America, the world . . . all these are covered in social studies courses. Also included in the Social Studies Department is geography.

Social Science . . . Flight through the centuries

Lands and far away places come nearer home in Coach Brown's geography class. Here Sammy Johnson and Billy Howell point out some point of interest.

The Tudor Family

Juniors study the cultures of many countries, past and present, in World History. Elaine Crumpler and Bill Taylor brighten up the scene with a colorful bulletin board.

Board work in Latin! Translating is fun when the teacher does it, too.

Through language studies we acquire a greater understanding of our foreign neighbors. Latin and French are offered in our school. They help us to understand the roots of our own language. Through the use of records we become acquainted with the spoken language.

Language . . . Wings to foreign lands

Mike Blackman and Pat Stallings bring France to senior French by picture scenes.

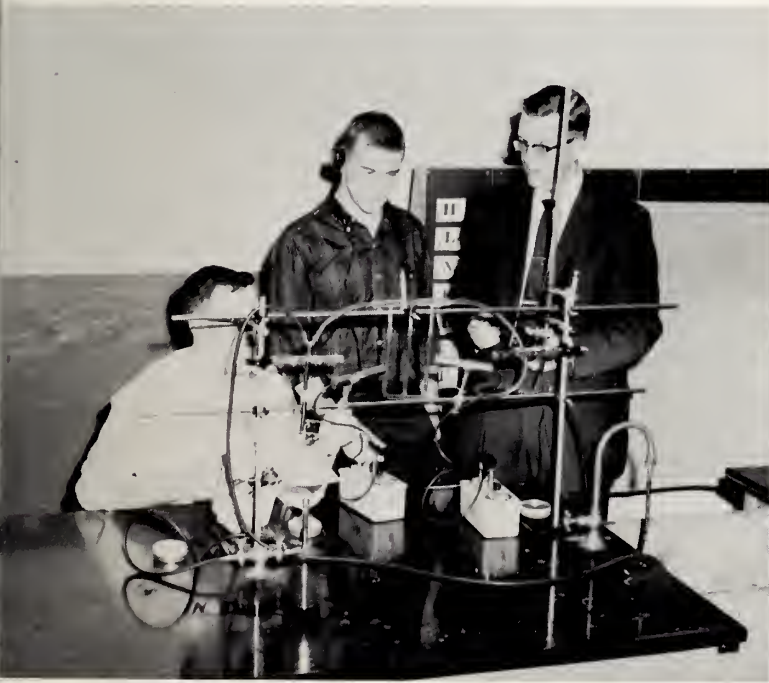

To cope with the recent accent on atomic energy, missiles, and nuclear weapons, a student must have a strong foundation in science. The demand for specialists in all phases of science has greatly increased in the past few years. It is the aim of the science department to meet this demand.

Mrs. Joyce Barbour, our biology teacher, is pictured showing one of her classes a preserved specimen to let them see what the books say.

Science . . . A gateway to the future

Testing radio active elements in physics class are Dewey Lawson, Billy Upchurch, and Mr. Wiggs.

Cleaning up is a part of chemistry too! Marc Wallace and Ed Wilkins are doing the job after one of their fifth period experiments in the lab.

The 4-H Club, one of the oldest clubs in our school, stresses farm projects of various kinds as well as other activities. Here Linda Woodall, Jamie Johnson, and Blenda Gray take on a new assignment—learning to operate a movie projector.

Clubs

Purposes of the Library Club are to promote more interest and participation in school library work and to arouse interests in the study of librarianship as a profession. Sara Lou Stephenson, Cynthia Williamson, and Darnell Penny get a good start under Miss Shearon, librarian.

Watts Ward demonstrates the proper way to plane a board in Industrial Arts Club. Mr. McDaris teaches the boys how to make furniture and many other useful articles.

It's Christmas time! The F.H.A. Club gets into the mood of the season by making Christmas arrangements.

Clubs

Dewey Lawson, president of the Fine Arts Club, demonstrates different types of music using a tape recording.

Charles Parrish, Shirley Thompson, and Faye Whitley determine the impurities in water by chemical analysis in Mr. Wiggs' Science Club.

Science and more science! Mrs. Barbour supervises Eugene Dixon, George Land, and Dan Hill in we don't know what!

Clubs

It may not look like wildlife but it is! Larry Bryant reads an article from Wildlife Magazine in Mr. Creech's Wildlife Club.

The Commercial Club under the guidance of Mrs. Peterson has had many interesting programs this year. Here Mrs. Tommy Medlin demonstrates good posture and charm for the business woman. Judy Ayscue decides she doesn't even know how to walk properly.

The victorious Homecoming game with Benson set the mood for our Homecoming Dance. Back to the Legion Hut we went! In the glow of the harvest moon looking through autumn leaves, we danced and danced. With entertainment coming from all classes, the evening came to an end too soon for all.

"Queen for a Day" . . . and longer was Judy Johnson, our Homecoming Queen. Coach Brown does the honors as Co-Captain Keith Johnson and Ed Wilkins watch with pride.

The Queen and her court made up of eleven senior girls were escorted on the field by the senior football players where they formed a large "V" for the ceremonies.

Touchdown! Billy Wellons dives over for the winning score with seconds remaining on the clock to climax one of the most exciting Homecoming games we have seen! Victory was sweet as Benson went down 14-7!

The Freshman girls wrote their own skit and directed it, too!

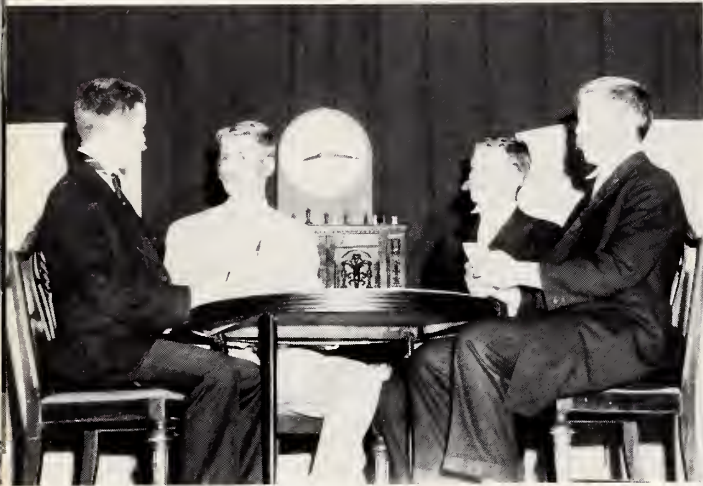

They liked the program . . . you can tell.

Beverly Collier got carried away in her skit . . . we did, too.

"Around the World in Eighty Days"

Phileas Fogg's home in London, October 2, 1872. The four English gentlemen are having a game of whist but the conversation turns to travel. Phileas Fogg (center) played by Sammy Simpson says, "I will bet twenty pounds with one or all of you that I will go around the world in eighty days or less." Stuart (left) Ted Jackson, Ralph (right) Roy Brown, III, Flanagan, Michael Grimes accept the offer.

"Around the World in Eighty Days" based upon the novel by Jules Verne was the senior play of 1960. With a cast of twelve men and eleven women, it took hours of work to reach a finished production. The staging was done in Elizabethan style and somewhat flexible whereby a few properties and a sign suggested the scene. It was fun for the stage crew, cast, and audience.

Bose, the elephant man, played by Steve Mackler (right) states to Passepartout and Fogg, "My elephant is not for sale."

"Line of Scrimmage"

Harry Donaldson (Joey Overby), education board chairman introduces Mr. Morrison to the intricacies of football by presenting him with a booklet on the game.

On November 18, 1960, the Junior class presented the play "Line of Scrimmage." The plot concerned a young college professor with a love for poetry and no knowledge of football who takes over as principal of a high school where the pigskin is king. The struggle to keep one of the team's top players on the squad brought out a blend of seriousness and hilarity! The play contained excellent philosophy.

Coach Horsley (Billy Wellons) attempts to explain to Principal Morrison the importance of Stanley Grappleneuskey to the school football team.

Morrison and secretary Medge Collins (Linda Higgins) are astounded to find that Keefer (Donald Stephenson) suspects the principal of helping Grappleneuskey cheat on an English test.

Principal Morrison, Miss Gamm (Norma Jean Johnson), accrediting official Harrison Keefer and board members Mr. Donaldson, Mrs. Warner (Kathie Lassiter), and Mrs. Burris (Carol Anne Wickham) find that football star Stanley Grappleneuskey (Dan Barefoot) doesn't understand English as well as his test grade indicates.

Junior 19

We outgrew the Country Club! The 1960 Jr.-Sr. Prom for the first time was moved to the gymnasium—a gymnasium transformed into a tropical island of rare beauty. In the foreground you will recognize Kealakakua Bay with a lone sail boat, white-capped waves, and the rippled path made by a brilliant moon that seems to rest almost where ocean and sky meet.

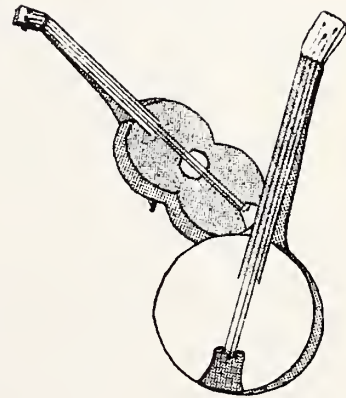

This Junior-Senior came complete with hula girls and music of the islands. The girls made their own dresses and worked out their dance!

In the chain of colorful mountains that meet the sea, you will notice Mauna Kea and Mauna Loa as well as Nuuanu Pali. Along the foot of the blue mountains is a small fisherman's hut of bamboo nestled in a grove of beautiful flowers and palm trees. It's a fairy-land of mountains, waves, and sea—a never-to-be-forgotten land of beautiful memories.

The South Sea Singers (Clarence Hill, Marc Wallace, Brack Wilson, Ben Baker, Johnny Glass, and Freddy Johnson) give their arrangement in native style of "The Little Grass Shack." He ain't shapely, but the skirt is grass!

High Times Staff

Editor Jane Creech and Assistant Editor Carol Ann Wickham talk with faculty advisor, Mrs. Roberta Smith, about a few of the many articles that go into each edition of the High Times. Jane has had some very interesting and very mature editorials in our paper this year that have helped to put thought as well as fun into the paper.

Pat Stallings, news editor, and S. B. McLamb, sports editor, dig into the High Times files to get information for their columns. The girls must have their gossip and the boys must have sports!

Working on ideas for the cover and drawings in the next edition, Art Editors Blenda Gray and Linda Higgins, and Fashion Editor Betty Lou Coates, seem to be working on the Easter edition. Betty Lou lets all the girls know who wore what where.

Shield Staff

Going over some last minute pictures and copy, Co-editors Steve Ratcliffe and Brack Wilson prepare the last few pages of the 1960-'61 Shield.

Assistant editors Judy Johnson, Blenda Gray, Kay Bridgers, and Bonnie Sue Creech are shown in one of the many sessions trying to pick the right senior quotations.

Advertising managers Lib Holland and Marc Wallace talk over prospective ad buyers and their plan of attack on each!

Glee Club

Our director, Miss Flora Parker, opens her mouth, raises her hand, and a hundred voices join in the chorus.

Good accompanists are necessary and we have them. Mary Ann Britt plays a difficult number as Bonnie Sue Creech, Margaret Lee Austin, and Kathy Lassiter look and listen.

Our Glee Club has organization! Officers meet for a going over of contest numbers. Left: Donald Byrd, Boys' secretary; Ann Cheatham, Girls' secretary; Vick Ogburn, Boys' Vice-Pres.; Mary Ann Britt, Girls' President; Penny Adams, Treasurer; Bonnie Sue Creech, Vice-President.

Band

We take particular pride in our high school band. Year after year they return from the State Contest with a superior rating. During the football season their performances at the ball games topped any season in the past. Two of the highlights of this year were the trips to Carolina and State to participate in half-time performances. Our hats are off to Director Lee Rogers for a band that we are very proud to call our own.

Officers of the Senior Band. Left: Mary Coble, Secretary; Nancy Langdon and Barbara Grantham, Librarians; Dewey Lawson, Publicity Manager; S. B. McLamb, President.

Preparing for the State Contest later this year, the band puts in many hours of practice for that certain sound that perks up the ears of the judges.

Sectional practices play a large part in making the band a single unit. Here the French horns get in a short practice session.

Music In Their Fingers

One of our outstanding seniors, Bonnie Sue Creech, has studied piano for nine years and has achieved piano Audition Honors four years. She has been an accompanist of the glee club throughout high school. She was vice-president of the girls' glee club and the Hunter Johnson Music Club for 1960-61. After school hours she has been pianist for the Geannie Robinson Dance Studio and organist for the First Freewill Baptist Church.

Glenda Adams, another student of Miss Canady, has studied piano for six years and has achieved piano Audition Honors two years. She has been a member of the glee club throughout high school. On Sundays she is the assistant organist at the Freewill Baptist Church.

S. B. McLamb has taken piano for four years and also plays the organ. S. B. plays the French horn in the high school band in which he has been active throughout high school. He has been the Drum Major for three years and this year is the president of the band. He has a very good tenor voice and is a student of Mrs. Themis.

Chapel Shots

The year has been filled with entertaining chapel programs. The band, Mrs. Themis's voice students, Homecoming Day, Bobby Jackson, the evangelist, and messages from some of the ministers of our town were some of the Wednesday's entertainment.

Escorted by the co-captains of the football team, Judy Johnson, our Homecoming Queen, is presented before the student body.

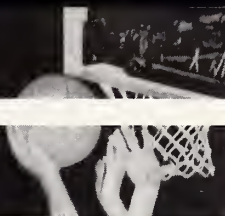

Jenny Wilson, Bet Booker, Genia Upchurch, Ann Cheatham, and Vivian Johnson sing good night to the kiddies in the Christmas program presented by the voice students of Mrs. John Themis.

Don't worry Miss America, they'll never make it! Here Ed Boyette and Vick Ogburn prepare for their dates to Homecoming, which are two, big, tall, strong, handsome brutes?

Smithfield's speed merchant, Freddy Johnson, picks up valuable yardage against Selma while Ed Wilkins clears the way.

The defensive giant of the Red Devils, Ed Wilkins, hits the Benson quarterback before he can get back to the line of scrimmage. Moving in fast to make sure of the tackle is Freddy Johnson (11).

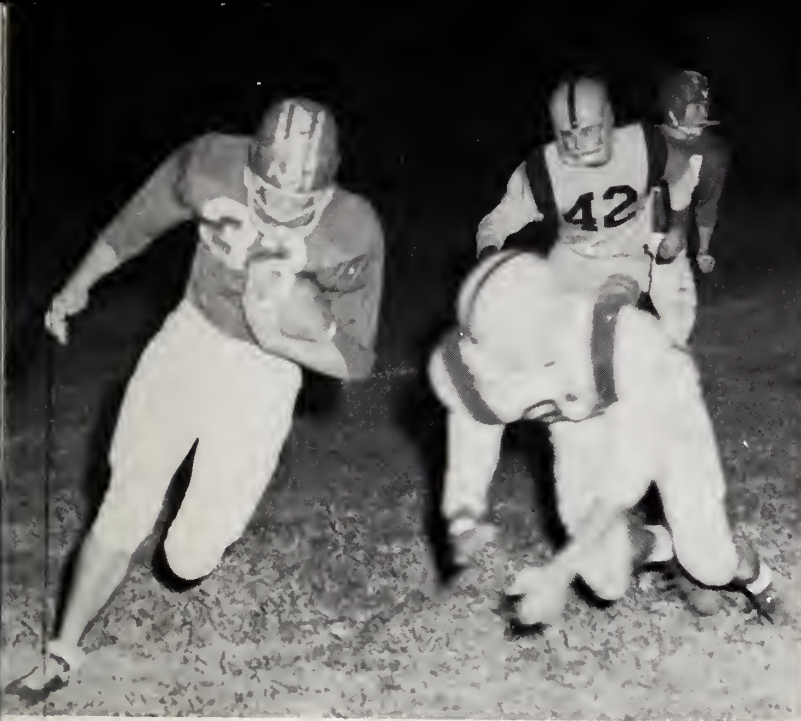

Selma ball carrier is about to be racked as Skipper Johnston and Keith Johnson move in for the kill!

Jeffrey Williams fails to find daylight as he is stopped by rugged Benson defenders.

Hard-hitting Keith Johnson brings down a Selma ball carrier as Tan Barefoot (60) and Larry Beasley (72) head for the pile-up!

Line forms at the rear! It's not the Bunny-hop; we don't know what it is!

Fullback Williams leaves a string of Benson defenders behind as he drives for a first down!

Here, starters Skipper Johnston and Keith Johnson take a well deserved breather and some words of advice from Coach Brown.

"Somebody HELP!" yells Freddy Johnson as he runs into a lot of trouble against Cary.

The Junior Varsity program in the past five years has given valuable experience to the boys who have been the varsity stars. It gives Freshmen and Sophomore boys training and teaches them the fundamentals of the game. Hats off to the J.V. program!

Boys' Basketball

Hit very hard by graduation last year, the Red Devil boys of Coach Jack Temple started the year with an entirely new team, a team composed of only two seniors, two juniors, and one sophomore. Led by the sharp shooting of Keith Johnson, Andy Holland, and Joey Overby, and the fierce rebounding of S. B. McLamb and Curtis Whitehurst, the Devil boys have come through the South Central Conference with another exciting and winning season. The performance of some top flight reserves has again been a big factor in bringing about a winning season.

Fuquay players watch the ball fly toward the basket as co-captain Keith Johnson shoots a jump shot!

Our other co-captain, S. B. McLamb, shoots from his post position as Holland and Williams move in for a possible rebound.

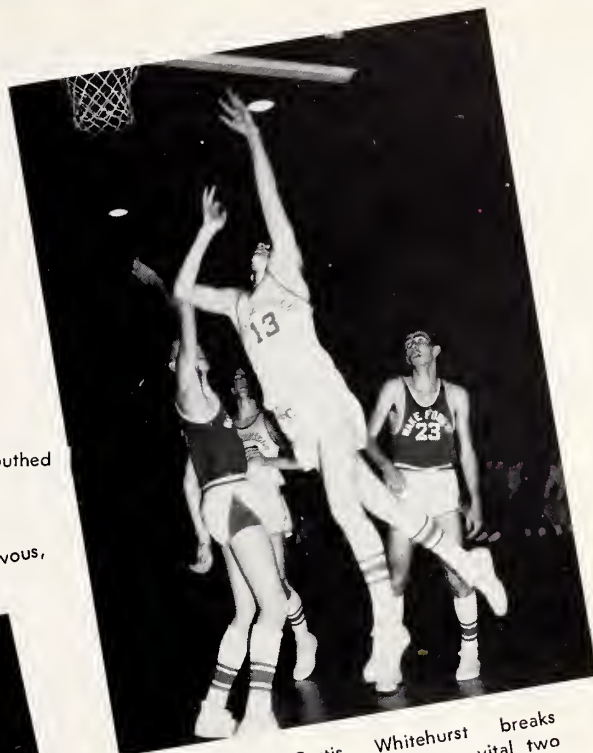

All ten players get into the act during a jump ball in a fast moving ball game with Wake Forest. The Red Devils were keyed up for the game and knocked Wake Forest from the undefeated ranks in a game that went into one overtime and then into a sudden death period. Fans were wild but the players seemed cool as they come.

Joey Overby stares open-mouthed at opponents deflected pass.

N-N-Now just don't get nervous, boys!

Center Curtis Whitehurst breaks through zone and scores a vital two points in sudden death overtime victory against Wake Forest! In the last overtime Andy Holland coolly stepped to the foul line and tossed in the winning points!

The shot looks good as Jeffrey Williams pops up a shot from the right side against Benson!

Andy Holland goes high into the air, but not high enough as his shot is blocked by Cary defender.

Girls' Basketball

Our girls' team began this year with experience and determination and came out with one of the best records in several years. Teamwork was an important factor in gaining a winning record. Led by the scoring of Mary Ann Britt, the team had very few close games. Nancy Langdon also aided with her sharp shooting from the outside.

The girls had some excellent guards to lead the defensive play. Coach Brown's starting lineup was dominated by seniors this year and consisted of Mary Ann Britt, Nancy Langdon, Lib Holland, Mary Coble, Penny Adams and sophomore Patsy Edwards.

The team in the future should not have any difficulty in gaining a winning season because of the outstanding playing of the reserves this year.

Coach Roy Brown, Jr., a coach happy with a winning team this year and the prospects of the future, shows Mary Ann Britt and Lib Holland, the Red Devil co-captains, some of the plays that have made a very successful season.

One of Smithfield's alert guards, Elaine Crumpler, grabs the ball and heads for mid-court.

Nancy Langdon, the Red Devils' top outside shooter, lets go of a one hand push shot that is another sure two points.

It's okay, Patsy, she got the ball!

Mary Ann Britt breaks into the clear and goes under the basket for an easy score.

Linda Byrd drives around the Benson defense and lays up two points!

Ann Cheatham jumps high into the air in an attempt to block a shot against Wake Forest.

The result is two points as Patsy Edwards charges in for a lay-up!

Cheryl Kistler grabs an Apex rebound as guards Elaine Crumpler and Bet Booker rush for the mid-court line to pass the ball to the waiting Red Devil forwards!

Bet Booker controls a Wake Forest rebound as Sammy Johnson moves in to help.

With Red Devil boys warming up in the background, Smithfield girls and cheerleaders stomp out appreciation to the visiting team. Usually it's a victory circle.

J. V. Basketball

The Little Devils of Mr. Donald McDaris have shown the form and poise that promises winning seasons are still ahead for the varsity. So far this season, they have been impressive in their games and are improving every game. Mr. McDaris, in his first year coaching the team, has done a fine job with the boys. The Little Devils, so far this year, have won three games, lost four, and tied one.

With a Clayton player charging in fast, Grover Wiggs maneuvers in and under the basket as Bobby Penny screens.

Going up for the shot, Bobby Penny has the ball knocked away, as Larry Bryant moves in for the rebound.

1960 Baseball

The Red Devil nine, coached by Jack Temple, had a very successful season while winning the Southern Division of the conference championship before losing out in the finals. Compiling a total of seven victories and three defeats for the season, the Devils lost only one game during the regular season.

It's no home run, but here Keith Johnson lays the wood to the ball for a hit against Selma.

1960 Track

The 1960 edition of the S.H.S. track team was one of record breakers. Led by Coach Roy Brown, Jr., the cindermen lost only one meet while winning one single meet, one four way meet, then racked up a victory in the AA District III championship meet. Bob Barbour set the conference mile record while timing 4:54 and Mike Grimes set a discus and shot put record. High jump and pole vault records for the new conference went to Preston Edwards. A lot of hard work and practice goes into track and this year's team truly kept our tradition of a winning team.

Bob Barbour pours on the steam as he adds more points to the victory margin by placing first in the mile.

David Lee starts his wind-up in the discus event against Wake Forest.

With a crowd of spectators looking on, Mike Grimes is in the process of letting loose one of his long tosses.

Smithfield High Class Of '61 Holds Reunion

The Class of 1961 of Smithfield High School celebrated its 10th anniversary with a reunion Saturday night at the Johnston County Country Club.

Forty-five class members were present with their husbands, wives, or dates as guests. The affair was planned and organized by M. Brack Wilson Jr., class president, and Mrs. Wilson the former Betty Lou Coates.

As guests arrived, they were greeted by Mrs. William H. (Gloria Hinton) Fuller Jr. and Mrs. Frank (Lib Holland) Layne. Copies of the 1961 annual, "The Shield," and newspaper, "The High Times," were on display, along with a picture of the graduating class.

Special guests were former teachers: Mrs. J. Chester Barbour with Mr. Barbour, Roy J. Brown, Mrs. Frances L. Creech, and Mrs. James W. Cash with Mr. Cash.

A social hour preceded the dinner, when class members reminisced about school days, met husbands or wives of the other members, and found out where their classmates are living and working. Following the dinner, Mr. Wilson gave a short summary of the questionnaire which members had filled out. He said that a permanent file will be set up, and he urged that any changes of address or job, or any births, be mailed to him at B. and R. Wilson Ford, Smithfield.

Mr. Wilson asked that as a special tribute to Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Glenn, who were unable to attend, the class members sign a letter to the Glenns, Mr. Glenn was the school principal in 1961, while Mrs. Glenn taught English.

Music was provided by the Corbett Rae Trio.
